

Craig Leichty pointed out that Dean Esmail is legally the VP for the ACNA until a successor is elected (by extension, Craig Leichty is still the Chairman of the EC yet Keith, Dean, Mark, Mike and Karen refuse to recognize him. Another liberal interpretation of the Bylaws by the ACNA EC!). I sent a letter to the board correcting my mistake and apologizing.

I drew an invalid conclusion in my email yesterday that requires correction and an apology. Dean Esmail is, in fact, eligible to be ACNA vice president due to the fact that no election has occurred to elect a 2007 executive committee. I apologize to Mr. Esmail and all the 2006 and 2007 board members who received my email yesterday.

Thanks go to Craig Leichty who responded nearly instantaneously to correct me on this.
